Description

The H10 Palacio Colomera is a hotel located in the former Casa Colomera, built in 1928, which was once the palace of the counts of the same name. Situated in the central Plaza de las Tendillas, the hotel project has sought to restore the palatial atmosphere of the original building. It features cosy rooms, a landscaped courtyard with a plunge pool, and a Rooftop Bar with views of the Plaza de las Tendillas. Its recent extension has added a new breakfast restaurant, Las Meninas, a second rooftop terrace with 360° views of the city, a spacious and light-filled lounge area in the hotel's atrium, and cosy rooms for small meetings.

- 102 rooms
- Free Wi-Fi throughout the hotel
- Las Meninas restaurant for breakfast
- Rooftop Bar 1928 with views of the Plaza de las Tendillas
- Mirador de Córdoba Rooftop with 360° views of the city
- El Rincón de las Tendillas Bar with a terrace
- New lounge area in the hotel atrium
- Garden courtyard with a plunge pool and sun lounge area
